

Your Decision About Who You Are

Your enemy wants you to believe lies about who you are and what belongs to you in Christ...DON'T BUY IT!!

“Be transformed by renewing your mind.....” Romans 12:2

“You shall know the truth and the truth shall make you Free!” John 8:32

Because God is the ultimate authority on all things I choose and decide today to believe His word and what He says about me. I am who He says I am, I have what He says I have, I can do what He says I can do and I will be what He says I will be! It is never prideful to say about myself what God says about me! Therefore..... I WILL RESIST THE ENEMY WITH THE TRUTH and begin my transformation process by believing into and declaring on an ongoing basis what God says about me:

Today I am a son of God and God's chosen, dearly and deeply loved child, a new creation and a close personal friend of Jesus Christ. Although I once was a sinner I am no longer because I was saved by grace I am now a saint who occasionally sins but I am constantly forgiven.

The sacrifice of Jesus body and blood on the cross has purchased me and forgiven me of all of my sins, past present and future....all!

Therefore I am now and forever free of guilt, shame and condemnation for anything I have ever done or will do wrong in my entire life.

I am NOT what the world or others say, I am God's workmanship and he has promised to complete the work that he has started in me.

I am the salt of the earth and the light of the world. I am holy and righteous in God's sight and I am more than a conqueror through Christ. I am part of a chosen people, a Royal priesthood, holy, righteous and belonging to God. I do not have to fear because God has not given me a spirit of fear. Fear is no longer my friend. Depression and sadness are no longer my companions.

I have been given the same Holy Spirit, power and authority as the early disciples were given. I have the right to exercise that power and authority on my behalf and on the behalf of the hurting people around me. Jesus said I shall do His works in my lifetime, setting many captives free and healing many diseases because greater is He who is in me than He who is in the world!
